The Minutes of the meeting held on 13 April 2010 were approved as a correct record and signed by the Chairman.

116 CAR PARKING ISSUES REVIEW

The Committee considered the final report of the project team on the Car Parking Issues review.

Recommended to the Portfolio Holder for Planning and Transportation:-

- (1) That the availability of tradesmen parking permits is given more publicity.
- (2) That the car parking charges should apply from 7 am to 6 pm
- (3) That the 30 minute time band for parking is introduced.
- (4) That the car parking charges for the one and two hour bands remain at the current level.
- (5) That, if recommendation No 3 is agreed, then the car parking charge for the 30 minute band is 40p.
- (6) That car parking charges for the following bands are:-
 - Up to three hours - £2.00
 - Up to four hours - £2.60
 - Up to five hours - £3.20

Review Committee – 27 April 2010

- (7) That officers consult with Ward Members on an annual basis to establish whether there is a need for any resident parking schemes.
- (8) That an investigation is instigated with ECC to develop an affordable residents parking scheme.
- (9) That additional full time Civil Enforcement officers are employed.
- (10) That an investigation is carried out into the possibility of out sourcing parking enforcement within the District.
- (11) That an investigation is carried out into the way that the money from the parking machines is collected on a daily basis.

The meeting closed at 2.10 pm.
